RYAN K. ROZAK,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

RANDALL R. HEPP, GEORGE COOPER
and MARC W. CLEMENTS,

Defendants.

---

Plaintiff Ryan Rozak, a prisoner in the custody of the Wisconsin Department of Corrections at the Fox Lake Correctional Institution, brings Eighth Amendment conditions of confinement claims that defendant prison officials are subjecting him to unsafe levels of lead and copper in the water supply. In a February 10, 2016, order, I granted plaintiff's motion for the court's assistance in recruiting counsel to represent him and stayed the proceedings. Dkt. 38.

The court has successfully located counsel for plaintiff. Attorneys Fred Gants and Kerry M. Mohan of the law firm Quarles & Brady LLP have agreed to represent plaintiff, with the understanding that they will serve with no guarantee of compensation for their services. It is this court's intention that the scope of representation extends to proceedings in this court only.<sup>1</sup>

Plaintiff should understand that because he is now represented in this case, he may not communicate directly with the court from this point forward. He must work directly with his lawyers and must permit them to exercise their professional judgment to determine which matters are appropriate to bring to the court's attention and in what form. Plaintiff does not have the right to require counsel to raise frivolous arguments or to follow every directive he makes. He should be prepared to accept the strategic decisions made by his lawyers even if he disagrees with some of them. If plaintiff decides at some point not to work with these lawyers, he is free to end the representation, but plaintiff should be aware that it is unlikely that the court will recruit another lawyer to represent him.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that the clerk of court is directed to set a telephone conference before Magistrate Judge Stephen Crocker to set the schedule for the remainder of the proceedings in this lawsuit.

Entered March 14, 2016.
